Our Subsidiary in Singapore Attained Certifications of ISO14001

One of our wholly owned subsidiaries in Singapore, UNION SERVICES (S'PORE) PTE LTD ("USS"), attained ISO14001 certification, the standards related to environmental management system.

USS is a logistics company in Singapore engaged mainly in logistics operations in plants, transportation and freight forwarding etc. and has promoted improvement of its service quality, security and working environment and already attained certifications relating to them. USS, in addition to them, as a corporate engaged in petrochemical logistics business, obtained ISO14001 at this time so as to establish the system to reduce environmental impact arising from corporate activities.

USS, considering preservation of global environment is an important duty for corporates, will take necessary actions steadily and continuously to make still more contributions thereto.
